

Welcome to the Real World

Real World Event Letter of Desired Educational Level

Dear Adult Advisor,

The young person identified below will attend the Real World Event on May 5, 2018. In preparation for this event, youths will participate in a career assessment, learn about writing/using checks, practice social skills, learn about insurance, and budgeting using a set salary based on their expected level of educational training. Using this salary, youths will obtain housing, transportation, insurance, and purchase entertainment while staying within their budget.

In order to make this experience more realistic, we need you to discuss realistic expectations for educational training with your young person. Please consider the youth's current achievement, interest in continuing education, as well as financial constraints, when helping the make this determination.

Please complete the section below as it will need to be attached to the youth's application to attend the Real World. Thank you for your assistance!!

Sincerely,
Sharon Glover
Agency Real World Coordinator

Youth's Name: _____

Adult Advisor: _____

I have discussed possible educational options with my youth. We've agreed, at least for the purpose of this activity, that the most likely level of education will be:

- _____ Complete high school-receive on the job training
- _____ Attend a community college, vocational school, or training/business school
- _____ Complete a four-year college degree
